NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE

The medical practice of Doctor's Robert W. Okerblom M.D., Donald J. Hole M.D., Rachel Zonca D.O., Sean Christiansen D.O., Peter D. Scott M.D and Associates have implemented policies to protect the privacy of your medical records. The following is a description of how we manage your individual medical information.

A written or electronic record of your health care is constructed at each encounter. This record may include your symptoms, examination, test results, treatment plans, outside records, and other medical information. Transcription services are often utilized. Our employees access this record only for legitimate medical or business reasons. All employees are trained in patient confidentiality procedures. Safeguards are taken to prevent the unintended disclosure of your health and information during creation, utilization, storage and destruction. Anything that identifies a patient with their individual medical care is protected.

By law, your medical information may be shared (without your authorization) for:

1. Treatment- To facilitate your care we may share information with consulting physicians, health care entities, Public Health and legal entities , and on call physicians. For example, we will send a consulting physician relative chart notes.
2. Payment- To obtain payment from third parties, we will provide requested information to insurers. For example, your insurance company may request chart notes before payment.
3. Healthcare operations- We may supply medical information for the purpose of quality control, business activities, and other healthcare operations. For example, we may need to call your home to remind you of an appointment.

Any other disclosures of your medical record will require your written or expressed authorization. This even includes disclosures to non-dependent family members. All disclosures of your record requiring authorization will be documented.

You have certain rights regarding your individual records, including the right to:

1. To inspect and copy your records and it's disclosures. Certain conditions like legal actions may restrict this right. Written 30 days notice is required prior to inspection, and a supervision fee may be required.
2. To request restrictions and amendments regarding your record your request must be in writing, specific, and time sensitive. We will accept or deny your request in writing. Special handling creates a burden for us and we may charge a fee.
3. To file written complaints concerning your records to our office manager.
4. To revoke in writing any prior disclosure authorizations at any time.
5. To request in writing that we communicate with you in alternative methods.

Some of the specific actions we have taken to protect your privacy include:

1. All employees with access to your medical records are trained to protect your privacy. Privacy training includes both, in the office and in the community.
2. Contracted and business associates with access to your medical records have been instructed regarding confidentiality handling of your record and have signed agreements to protect your privacy.
3. Your medical records and demographics information is never knowingly sold or otherwise released for non-medical or commercial purposes.

If there are any parts of this privacy policy you do not understand, please consult with our office manager. We are happy to address any of your questions or concerns.
